

Your Why

Each of us carries our own WHY.

It can be found when your feet hit the ground
in the morning light.

It asks ...

What must you do?

Who must you be?

This is your WHY.

It's embedded in every part of you
even if you cannot see it.

So, listen ...

Can you hear what it's saying?

A.M. Machesky

